Of San Silvestre San Silvestre is the feast of St Silvestre and is celebrated on the night of his death. In Portugal the day is a bank holiday. But also it is a British Bank Holiday in England too.

Background Of St Silvestre Silvestre came from a noble family who were the Kings of Navarre. In fact he was born in Aix-la-Chapelle in France in around 976 AD. Silvestre was just a little boy when he was elected Prince of Navarre, a French country, with his older brother Frans-Guillaume. During his reign the family ruled over a large area of country and when it was taken away from him he was tortured and eventually killed. Silvestre's mother, Agnes, was pregnant at the time and after his death she gave birth to a girl who was born blind. The child was called Cunegonde and became the daughter of the King of Navarre, Gondi. Story Of St Silvestre St Silvestre was educated and became an early Christian convert. During his life he was known as St Silvester and he lived around for another 20 years or so. He went to France and continued to serve the Church. When he arrived in France he became a priest at a Church which was dedicated to the Archangel

Michael. Silvestre was an old man when he died and he was only 59 years old. He had been consecrated bishop by the Pope, Gregory VII, in 996. He is commemorated on 31 December, but this is celebrated in England as 31 January - the date of his death. In other parts of the world it may be celebrated the night of 31 December or New Year's Eve. San Silvestre is also known as St Thomas of Canterbury and his feast day is celebrated on 31 July.
