Chandigarh, September 07, 2020 19:42 IST Image: India Today HIGHLIGHTS Central government employees allowed to work from home from Friday Those in the 15-69 years age group may be allowed to work from home Those in the 70-79 years age group may be allowed to work from home Line management conditions for the first time extended to four days Gurugram: If you, or any member of your family, have COVID-19 and are symptomatic, do not come to work. Continue to follow the directives of the health authorities. Also, if you are sick for three days or more with any COVID-19 symptoms, you will be denied leave. Gurgaon: Government employees in the city will be allowed to work from home from Friday as a part of the central government's "All India 21-day work at home" initiative. Gurgaon: The government has decided to extend the window for workers to apply for leave till April 20 and it will work to assess the need for a fortnight's leave to be allowed on a day-to-day basis. New Delhi: The government on Wednesday made it clear that essential services will have to continue to be provided during the 21-day work at home period, even as the country battles the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the relaxed work norms that allow employees to work from home are going to be in effect only for employees in the 15-69 years age group. No one is allowed to work from home for three consecutive days. However, all employees will be allowed to work from home on the first day of the 21-day lockdown. It has been decided that employees of 15-69 years will be allowed to work from home from Friday in the central government. The companies however, will have to ensure that there is no possibility of transmission of COVID-19 to the person who is sitting at the workplace. Gurugram: Companies with more than 50 employees are required to report to the Commissioner of Labor through e-mail or a website no later than 6 pm every day, or 18 days after the lockdown began. The office of the Chief Labor Commissioner will ensure compliance and will inform all companies on the basis of these reports by looking at the individual needs of each company. Gurugram: The government has decided to extend the window for workers to
