Arma 3 Download: Part of Arma 3 package on Steam Description Description:Â .U.S. Helicopter Accidents Caused By Improper Procedures, Not Cockpit Errors Most helicopter accidents are caused by weather or mechanical malfunctions, not a malfeasance on the part of the pilot and crew. However, over the past five years, pilot misjudgments have caused most of the forty-five fatal accidents involving U.S. helicopters. These accidents typically involved improper procedures. The authors found that only 9 of these accidents involved mechanical failures. The authors found that the most serious mishaps involved taking off into, or landing in, adverse weather conditions or poor visibility. One pilot who was very experienced, although not licensed to take off from a short field, was able to successfully take off and land in poor visibility. Unfortunately, the pilot's
