VANCOUNT (1994) BETTER WATCH OUT! VANCOUNT is a great friendship from the past! Our traditional action-fighting game from the 90's returns in HD and is fun to play again, with some new additions like a new story mode and a online multiplayer battle mode. On the way to the incredible land called Tarnish there's a lot of stuff worth mentioning but we'll start with the gameplay. VANCOUNT: (1994) PALETTE There are 3 different themes in Vancount. The battle screen will have a slight color scheme change depending on the theme you are on, as well as the music changes slightly depending on the theme. It also has 16 different colors. VANCOUNT: (1994) STORY There are 7 stories in total. Depending on the story you choose you will be able to change your starting weapon and have a different ending. There are also 15 different endings in total. VANCOUNT: (1994) PLAYERS There are 4 online battles and 1 vs. Mode. Each online battle will have a different team with 4 people. You can choose from any of the 4 heroes. Everyone has to be unique in a way that no one can guess who you picked. VANCOUNT: (1994) SONGS There are 3 songs for each of the 3 themes. They all are like battle songs, can be used as an ability to make your character attack more aggressively or whatever you want, but also like a fun song that you can enjoy when your character is in the middle of a fight. VANCOUNT: (1994) VITTER VITTER is one of the 4 characters in Vancount. He comes with a unique technique which allows him to attack an entire row or column of the opponent. He is also a faster character with a higher attack power, however his attacks are not as powerful as VICTOR. VITTER's move: VITTER and KARMA have a special move that when used, one of the 4 columns of the opponent will be destroyed, meaning that the opponent will have to perform a specific move to be able to fight,

These people have put more hours into designing and testing the mod than I could have ever hoped for.
