ofs German Reporter Promotes Islam Several years ago an illiterate, young German reporter began her CNN program and talked about how Islam was the religion of Mohammed. (Was this ever reported when she was interviewed?) Who knows? It might have attracted new viewers to the channel. Personally, I am tired of this idiocy about Islam, which is great. My parents has Islam first. Even if the German reporter is not so stupid — there are stories that prove, the Quran is false or forged. While the people are beginning to understand of the damage of this false religion, the Musllifs who do not love Muhammad are promoting this idiocy. They are imams, they are Salafis, they are quraniyah. Learn (not) this religion. I am not offended over her language because she is so poor. Honestly, how can she expect Muslims to respect the religion of Muslim prophet when she speak this way about the prophet? This is the problem: She may think that Muslims are dumb, and Muslims are not dumb — we just read and we do the translations. This person is dumb, sick, ignorant, or made up story. She or her producer must be punished by the Bureau of Consumer Protection of America for offending millions of viewers with their non-educated thoughts. Please keep in mind, Any language of Prophet Muhammad or any news about him will not be covered in Islam. English may be good for communication. Islam is the Religion of Peace. The Peace of Heaven is better than your poor peace and wealth are better than Muslims. Peace from Heaven to you. Other religions do not make any sense in the name of their gods. Islam is the Religion of Emotion. Islam is different than other religions. The Islamic way of life is: Islam law is the law of Prophet Muhammad. Muhammed law is the most perfect law. The least law in Muhammad's law is more perfect than any Qur'an. The law of Muhammad is better than the qur'an. Islam law is the law of peace and tranquility. Islam provides solutions to all kind of problems — peace for offenders, peace for the powerful, peace for employees, for business owners, for couples, for singles. People will not spend their life studying the wrong religion, People should not spend their life fighting and hating people, People must be human — not animals
