Windows 7 Loader V1.9.1 (x86 X64) By Daz.603

A: Note: Today I've reinstalled the game to my HDD, and the 'form' of this answer didn't work anymore. I just made a new one. The latest updates made the game quite buggy when it comes to forms. You have to use the Steam version. When you launch it, it will ask you if you want to play any games in the background, if you click yes you'll be prompted if you want to play on the TS3 folder. If you click no, the game will start normally (no additional setup needed). If you click yes, the game will run in the background, all others will stop working until the games ends. When it's done, you have to start the game from the Steam, otherwise it won't load. Note 2: If you have problems, please make sure your Daz folder is deleted. Note 3: If you want to exit the game without re-launching from the TS3 folder, press the ESC key while in the form. Here are the links to the latest versions from the Steam Store And the installer links Once you've the game, open the folder and change the extension from.daz to.zip. Then launch the game through Steam and you should be good. If there's anything I can help you with, do not hesitate!
Update: The latest updates also changed the 'custom froms' files. Updated links:

Zwarte Piet Zwarte Piet (Afrikaans for Black Pete) is a personification of Saint Nicholas in European and North American folklore, named for his black face (the colour of coal). In some European Christmas traditions he traditionally appears on 6 December and brings children gifts, but in other traditions, he is usually portrayed as a white bishop/priest (generally in black). The name of his black-faced companion (the Dutch pronunciation of "Nicholas") is Smout (originating from the Old Dutch smalle ). Other names for him include Saint Holloc and Zwarte Jan ("Black John"). European folklore British Saint Nicholas was identified by folklore and mythology in the Middle Ages as 'the Bishop of Myra, in Lycia, who brought presents to the children. At Whitsuntide children took their shoes off and went barefoot to the church. At Christmas time the priest was dressed in black, with a mitre, and carried a candle, a long pole and a bag. Sometimes accompanied by two black companions, he was called 'Nicholas'. In December 1840 the New England Tract Society in Boston published a pamphlet entitled Black Peter: a Christmas Tradition Among
