I will be using the iPhone wifi hotspot connection to upload some data to server. A: You can't use the iPhone's built-in hotspot to connect to a server. If you want to use iPhone's hotspot instead of a 3G connection, you have to use your own open network with your own configuration (and possibly with some authorization). You can read more about that on the Apple help page about using iPhone for mobile network access: Effects of menadione on living organisms of black sea bass (Centropomus syriacus). During short exposure of male and female black sea bass, Centropomus syriacus, to menadione at 25 degrees C in a laboratory experiment, lethargy, increased respiration, erratic swimming and flabby and reddish body coloration occurred. The plasma testosterone concentration decreased significantly. In a treatment of 12-h duration, concentration of plasma male-steroid hormone was, as a rule, reduced, while the hormone level decreased significantly after an exposure of 24-h duration. Peripheral blood analysis at 12 h showed substantial reduction of hemoglobin, hematocrit and erythrocyte count, and the hemoglobin oxygen affinity was significantly decreased. The hematocrit and erythrocy
