Do you have any recommendations? A friend suggested I ask the Loveaholic blog readers to leave me some questions they want to ask to "love expert" friends. As I get more and more involved in the online dating scene (thanks to the wonderful readers of Loveaholic and my online dating adventures, I'm starting to find the process very addictive), I found some of you wanting to ask me how to "love better." So here are 28 Questions to Ask When You're Dating From Angelique: I am in my 40's and have a ton of experience. I just joined online dating but am afraid to ask any of the questions. This is my maiden venture so any help will be most appreciated. Thank you in advance.The invention relates to a process for the production of polyisocyanates from a specific ketimine and/or a ketamine, wherein the ketimine or ketamine is converted by direct carbonylation without subsequent activation of the ketimine or ketamine in the presence of an aldehyde and an alcohol. Furthermore, the invention relates to the novel ketimine or ketamine and to the polyisocyanates obtained by the process. The production of isocyanates is known and has been described several times in the literature. DE-A 1,511,914, for example, describes the reaction
